

QUALITY ASSURANCE SERVICE

Vision: setting the standards in the quality of the teaching process which move the existing boundaries and serve as a benchmark by which others can be measured

Mission: constant monitoring of the best global practice in the field of quality assurance; keeping up-to-date with the notions of quality in education in the 21st century; improving the quality assurance procedures on the basis of previous measurements and the vision of a highly competent outgoing product; encouraging students to participate more actively in the quality assurance of the teaching process; constantly improving co-operation with all participants and services in the process of education.